Dear Partners,

We are excited to announce that the 8th annual State of the Asian Women's Health in MA conference: Promoting Best Practices for Culturally Responsive Care for Asian Women will convene at the ZGC Innovation Center (1000 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, MA 02138) on Wednesday, May 20th 2020 from 8:00 am to 3:30 pm.

The goal of this conference is to educate healthcare professionals about the importance of providing culturally responsive and competent care and recognize frontline workers' contributions to advance Asian women's health.

This important state-wide gathering of community members, advocates, public health officials, service providers, business leaders, community-based organizations, researchers and policy makers not only provides a rich co-learning platform for engaging key stakeholders, but also facilitates cross-sector collaborations.

Please see the attached form for sponsorship/advertising/exhibit opportunities. We thank you in advance for your consideration in supporting our efforts.

Sincerely,

Chien-Chi Huang,
Executive Director
